

Kids Throng Area Schools

By ED DECKER

SOUTHWEST - For most of the children in the United States today is that dreaded day . . . back to school. The all too short summer has come to an end and the days of books and teachers is at hand.

Area schools, for the most part, show an increase in actual or tentative enrollment. A lengthy telephone survey reveals:

In Lockport the Ludwig School welcomed 590 students to 23 classrooms, 26 teachers and classes one through eight. Miss Edna Walsh is the principal.

Park View Elementary School in Romeoville, one of the largest elementary schools in the state, opened its doors to 1,350 students attending classes one through six. Forty-four teachers in 44 classrooms under the direction of Principal Verne Shelley comprise the staff of this large school.

A cafeteria is in operation in the facility, serving more than 1,000 meals each school day.

Reed School, Lockport, under the guidance of Principal George Pease and 27 teachers greeted their 580 students who will attend classes one through eight.

Taft School, Lockport, has an attendance of 400 students in kindergarten through the eighth grade. Eighteen teachers and Principal Doyme

Traffic Toll Is 1 Dead In Area

SOUTHWEST - Will County and the southwestern section of Cook came through the long Labor Day weekend with only one fatality. There were several fender - bender type collisions but no one was seriously injured.

The fatality took place Monday on a road near the Wilbur Lauffer farm in the Peotone area. Killed was Carl D. Schaefer, 56, who for the past 18 years had been employed on the Lauffer farm and made his home there.

Schaefer and Lauffer had been picking up baled hay in a field to transport it to the barn. They were using a pick-up truck. Lauffer was driving and Schaefer was standing in the back of the truck.

According to information obtained by Coroner Willard G. Blood, one of the bales apparently slipped and struck Schaefer, knocking him off balance. He fell out of the moving vehicle, striking his head. Death was due to a skull fracture, it was reported. The body was taken to the Fedde-Helfrick funeral home at Peotone.

A New Lenox man, Russell Murchinson, 24, was hospitalized for a day following an accident early last Saturday morning in which his car went off the road and struck a utility pole.

The mishap took place on U.S. 30, about a mile east of New Lenox. Murchinson suffered scalp wounds and head injuries. He was taken to Silver Cross Hospital but was released Sunday.

State police charged Murchinson with improper lane usage and illegal transportation of liquor. A sister, Cynthia, 16, a passenger in the car had minor injuries and was not hospitalized.

LEMONT -- Threatening skies were kind to the 20th annual Keepataw Days celebration as Labor Day celebrants enjoyed the biggest and finest festival in many years.

A crowd estimated at 22,000 watched the parade wind its way on Labor Day along Stephen St., east on Main and then west on Illinois past the reviewing stand to its conclusion at Main and State.

The parade was sprinkled liberally with outstanding floats, fire engines with sirens wailing, ponies and horses and the omni-present mixture of clowns and fun makers.

The many marching bands boasted an extremely talented array of high school and grammar school aggregations, plus three excellent professional units. All were a joy, as was the Great Lakes Training Command Drill Team.

When parade marshal Archie Abrams, a longtime civic leader in Lemont, signaled the start sharply at 1 p.m. the skies were overcast. But as the tempo of the march increased amid the enthusiastic response from viewers, out popped the sun to keep everybody in a festive mood.

Through it all, nary a drop of rain.

After the parade the McAllister Memorial Band, national American Legion champion for 19 of the last 21 years, treated listeners to an excellent concert in front of the Lemont National Bank.

Ice cream socials and other gay events extended the fun into the evening hours.

The three - day celebration got underway Saturday at 6 p.m. when the carnival with its 12 rides and scores of booths along Main Street opened. It was the best selection for fun for all age groups in recent years.

Bill Bromberek, coordinator for the Original Lemont Jaycees, sponsor of the celebration, expressed his belief that this Keepataw Days event offered something for

SEMI COLLIDE — These two big vehicles came together on U.S. 30, about a mile west of Wolf Rd. last Wednesday (Aug. 27) shortly after 11 a.m. The flatbed truck, driven by Bernard E. Murphy, of 871 Maple Lane, Chicago Heights, was east bound, according to State Trooper James Bolerjack, while the van type vehicle, driven by Robert W. Booten, Aurora, was traveling west. Fortunately they didn't meet head on. Both drivers escaped injury. Police Chief Joseph Wajchert, of New Lenox, kept traffic moving until state police arrived. (GRAPHIC Photo)

Discuss Sidewalks For Frankfort

FRANKFORT -- Sidewalks, anyone? The Village of Frankfort is to embark on a sidewalk repairing project this fall and if any residents are interested in installing walks the village is ready to cooperate.

At last week's meeting of the village board the members indicated they were willing to spend money to help the cause. Trustee Lynn Kohl-hagen said that the Village of Peotone assumed a portion of the cost of building sidewalks there.

While no definite figure was set indications were that the village might pay half of the bill for building walks in Frankfort. Any groups interested should get in touch with village officials.

While most villages today are still without sidewalks, curbs and gutters, except in limited areas, they have subdivision ordinances that require these things, as well as storm sewers in addition to sanitary sewers.

Householders opposed such improvements originally, it has been pointed out, because they figured it would be cheaper and they would rather put up with the inconvenience than spend the money.

Some of the walks that are in use are in such disrepair they are dangerous, board members agree, and could get the village involved in a lawsuit.

A check for $2,900, which was the amount appropriated for the use of Frankfort Community Park, was given to the park board, along with bills for some lights installed at the baseball field. There is a park district but as yet it has not had any tax money available. To tide the district over its cashless period the village board has been contributing funds.

The lighting program for the baseball field was started about three years ago. Each year the village has added to the system and is completing it this year.

The park board has also received contributions from other sources to tide it over until tax revenue comes in.

The property of Van Yunker on 95th Av. has been annexed to the village.

Mayor Glenn Warning reported that he has received numerous complaints about weeds. The village can cut weeds and bill the lot owners but sometimes it is difficult to collect from them and it is necessary to place a lien against the property.

The mayor is hopeful that the Homeowners Association in Connecticut Hills will prevail upon lot owners there to cut the weeds. There are a lot of weeds growing in Connecticut Hills and in other sections of the village, too.

An ordinance was adopted relating to parking on Ash St. between Kansas and Nebraska Sts. It is a one-way thoroughfare, for north bound traffic, in that block. Parallel parking is decreed for

Lemont Board Adopts 1970 Spending Plans

LEMONT -- The annual appropriation ordinance which this year will total around $377,310 was approved by the Lemont Board of Trustees at their regular monthly meeting.

Last year the appropriation ordinance was $284,830. In the appropriation for 1969-70, $92,600 is to be raised by taxation, and $284,710 is to be raised by other sources, or previously levied.

An increase in the village payroll and allowances for a new squad car, canal purchase fund, and auto allowance, and school crossing guards, accounts for the increase in the 1969 appropriation ordinance.

A $2,700 increase over 1968-69 is shown in the general corporate fund under salaries.

In the police department there was an increase of $11,000. This is accounted for in the hiring of a dog warden, purchase of a new squad car, radio and radar maintenance, supplies and salaries.

A decrease of $300 was shown in the parking meter maintenance.

An increase of $24,620 was noted in the general fund. Among these items was $10,000 for the canal purchase $1,200 for auto allowance an $1,500 increase in legal counsel and court, $8,200 in village hall repairs and maintenance, among other supply increases. A decrease of $200 was shown in postage and office supplies.

An increase of $38,320 was shown in the total general corporate fund.

The increase of $32,410 in the road and bridge fund can be found in the $30,000 increase in show removal; $1,500 for salaries; $570 in supplies; $240 in superintendent's salary; and $100 for tree removal.

No change was noted in both the municipal band fund, a salary of $600 for the director, and in the garbage disposal fund, with $1,000 allotted for garbage removal.

Among the other funds were the following increases: $5,500 for police pension; $500 for the library fund; and $3,400 for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund.

In looking over the water department allocations, an increase of $9,350 is noted. The bulk of increases come from payroll, electric power and hydrants and maintenance. A decrease of $1,200 is shown in the IMRF and SS section. No change is noted in the water revenue bond fund.

Bond Issue Deal Made

NEW LENOX -- Lincoln-Way High School can now proceed with its plans to expand the present school plant to provide facilities for freshmen classes. The board of education sold $1.5 million of bonds to La Salle National Bank of Chicago.

The interest rate is 5.66 per cent, which the board, and others familiar with governmental financing, regard as a good rate when one considers the price of money on today's bond market.

The bonds were sold at the meeting of the board last week. There were several bidders, the others being,

Northern Trust Co., Chicago, 5.83 per cent; Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., Chicago, 5.99 per cent; the Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co., Chicago, 6 per cent.

The board plans to add rooms to house 600 freshmen, plus necessary space for administration and operation. The vocational training facilities on hand will serve the new unit.

The Lincoln-Way High School board has always stretched its building dollars as far as possible. The building is functional but there are no marble halls or other fancy touches.

Letter Debate Ends With 'No'

By ANN KARKUT

LOCKPORT -- Library board members voted down the letter to be sent Lockport bank officials regarding the use of parking and a plan to have a crossing guard available at peak times.

At the July meeting the board okayed drafting such a letter.

Mrs. Gen Bismarck, library board member, drafted the letter along with Mrs. Jeanne Juricic. Mrs. Bismarck read the letter at last Tuesday's meeting. She addressed the letter to the bank board as she felt it was an agreement between boards and not individuals.

Bernie Havidich said the letter should have been addressed to the bank president rather than the board but he didn't feel the letter was necessary at all.

Mrs. Bismarck's argument for the letter was that verbal commitments are insufficient. By sending the letter at least the library board would have something in writing, she reasoned. She thought this would create less confusion in the future as personalities come and go.

Robert Babich, board member, said contracts are made to be broken. After a lengthy discussion, Babich motioned not to send the letter which was seconded by George Mushro. Voting no were Babich, Mushro, Havidich and Herman Alberico, board president. Only one in favor of sending the letter to Mrs. Bismarck. Mrs. Jeanne Juricic was absent.

Mrs. Elaine Stonich of Crest Hill asked the board if they had advertised for landscaping bids. Board told her they did not as they did not have specifications. They did receive three bids from reputable area landscapers, said Mrs. Bismarck.

According to house bill 1640 adopted June 21, 1967, libraries must advertise for bids, said Mrs. Stonich. Board should follow rules and procedures she said.

Mrs. Lillian O'Boyle, librarian, told Mrs. Stonich she should have contacted the state legal adviser for library boards.

Three letters of intent were received to fulfill the vacancy created by Mrs. Helen Whalen who moved from the district. Letters were from James Ficke and Elaine Stonich of Crest Hill and James Zebell of Lockport.

Board members, after much deliberation, decided to wait for the next meeting to appoint one of the three.

Two part-time custodians for the Crest Hill Branch were approved for hiring.

Mrs. O'Boyle said several persons have come to board members complaining about books not being available and she felt they should have contacted her. Best seller books go out for three weeks and she suggested they only be taken out for one week so others may have a chance to read them.

Havidich reported that the July balance was $17,050.40 and disbursements came to $17,740.69 leaving a deficit of $690.24. Board approved a $1,300 tax warrant from the First National Bank of Lockport.

Havidich said the library received the second grant from the state for $17,395 and about $34,000 is still due for the third grant. Board approved payment of $30,303.90 to Modern Builders for the Crest Hill Branch. Still due Modern Builders is $35,392.05.

Of the $93,361.03 received in taxes, Havidich said $77,294.49 was paid to the bank.

Homer School Board Discusses Addition

By ANN KARKUT
LOCKPORT -- Homer School board members discussed a six classroom addition at Monday's session last week. Two of the rooms are for the kindergarten children next year.

Architect Earl Wardrum recommended the kindergarten classrooms be at least 23 feet by 31 feet. He also suggested the board consider carpeting in these two rooms.

Working drawing plans should be finalized by a special meeting set for Sept.

16 at 8 p.m. A referendum is contemplated in October to make facilities ready for next fall.

Board approved the request of the Homer TOPS Club to use a classroom each Wednesday evening for a short business meeting.

Charles Cook was hired at $500 monthly as a second custodian. Head custodian Fred Blasing will receive a salary increase of $50 per month.

Superintendent Luther Schilling read the letter from Ray Page, state superintendent of public instruction, giving full recognition to Homer School for the coming school year. Decision was based on the evaluation of the educational program.

Russell Lauffer, treasurer, reported that the Homer tax collection amounted to $110,819.50.

Balances as of July 31 were $1,440.06, educational fund; $671.63, building; $708.92, bond and interest; $530.60; transportation; $66, IMRF; $71.83, site and construction; and $1,825.55, working cash. Total investments are $131,325.18.

School TV Plan Waits Financial Discussion

By LOUISE SCHALLER
ROMEONVILLE -- Details of a new instructional television system were explained to members of school board 96 of Valley View District at the board's most recent meeting.

The system involves use of telephone lines to transmit programs. The board indicated the system had merit, but said that financial details would have to be explored with Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

Permission was given to James Gove, administrative assistant, to discuss financial details with the phone company. The board will have to give final approval. This will be another first for the district in the educational field. Plans for school attendance on the 45-15 plan are already underway.

Paul Swinford, business manager, conducted the budget hearing. He said the total budget was $5,232,155, the expanded amount was $5,955,901, and the difference will be made up from warrants.

Swinford also said the district will collect $100,000 this year under public law 815. It provides payments to schools educating students whose parents are employed in government industries.

Robert Shoop, architect's representative, reported Ridge View School is nearing completion, and the opening date will be Sept. 3. Air conditioning at Valley View School is complete, with the exception of the kitchen area. This is being worked on.

Acoustical materials for West View Junior High gymnasium are expected to be delivered and installed by school opening. Bids for the bus housing facility will be sought again. Only one bid was received in the first asking, and it was considered too high. Twenty one new teachers were approved. Six bus drivers are still needed and their pay will be $2.25 an hour.

Gates at North View School will be open for recreation from 8 a.m. until dark, with the exception of Sunday when it will open at 1 p.m. This plan will be observed by the board for 30 days and if it operates satisfactorily the program will be expanded to Brook View school.

Bids for the purchase of gasoline will be sought by the business office. A loan for the purchase of the buses in the amount of $57,624, has been arranged with the First National Bank of Lockport. The loan is to be repaid early in 1970.

The next meeting is Sept. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Park View school library.

Crest Hill Is Buying Speeder Detector Unit

CREST HILL -- The city council has approved purchase of a VASCAR unit for the police department. This was among a number of actions taken by the council at a recent meeting.

VASCAR, (Visual average speed computer and recorder) is $970 installed in the squad car. It will help police clock speeders in a simple and accurate way.

Four new auxiliary policemen were hired. They are Carter Lang of 1008 Theodore; William Livingston, 1627 Raynor; George Fauce, 1800 Willowbridge Rd., and Willis Peterson, 1707 Nicholson. Chief Joe Eaker will be responsible for training the men. Three more auxiliary policemen are needed. Only Crest Hill residents will be accepted.

Action to purchase a 1969 fully equipped air conditioned Pontiac Catalina from Gordon Pontiac at $3175 was tabled. Alderman Harris motioned council to advertise for bids on 1969 and 1970 models using the same specifications.

A total payroll of $7,470.57 for July 28 through Aug. 10 was approved. Bills totaling $68,238.16 were approved.

An amendment to the liquor ordinance, allowing female bartenders in Crest Hill, was approved by a five to three vote. Negative votes were cast by Alderman Ficke, Harris and Gale.

WILL COUNTY -- Clarence Lipman, county treasurer, announced the distribution of more than $2 million on Aug. 26, 1969 to all taxing districts in each of Will County's 24 townships.

Tax payments made prior to July 1 were made to the township collector. Payments after that date were made to the treasurer for distribution to local taxing bodies.

All tax monies collected by the treasurer are distributed to taxing bodies on the basis of current collections made by the treasurer's office.

Will Township taxing bodies will receive $2,340. Joliet township taxing bodies will receive a combined total of $933,425.

Other amounts received by township taxing bodies, according to Deputy Treasurer Walter F. Schuetz, are as follows: Lockport, $272,500; Frankfort, $144,649; Troy, $103,172; DuPage,

NEW LENOX -- The Gougar Rd. crossing over the Rock Island Lines is closed to traffic for the next four to six weeks.

The old road is being supplanted by a new one, a four lane project. It comes off of Washington St., just west of the L & W truck stop. New lights also will be installed.

5 X Question Equals Answer

Copyright 1969 World Book Science Service

Next time you ask a question, notice how many words are in the answer you receive. Chances are the answer will be five times longer than your question.

A psychologist came to this conclusion after studying medical interviews, psychotherapy sessions, civil service, drug store or department store employment interviews, and free conversation.

Another team of psychologists set out to discover just how universal this phenomenon is.

They took two rather unusual situations: space flight and news interviews with a U.S. president.

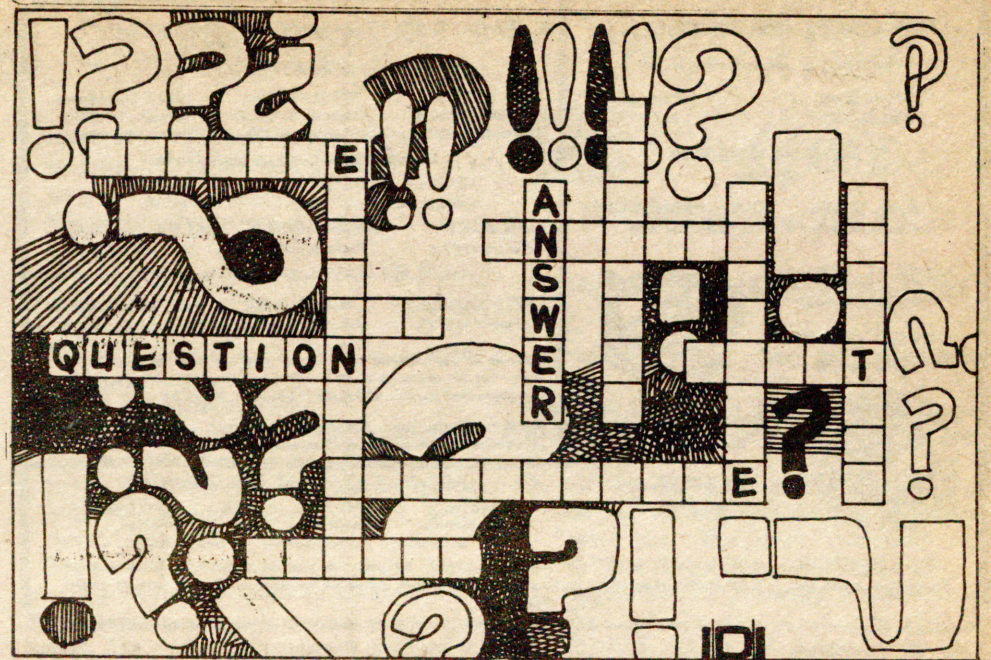

Conversations between astronauts out in space and ground controllers turned out to be considerably briefer than the average.

The ratio of answer length to question length is about 1.2 to 1 - just about even.

How do you think the presidential interviews came out?

In these rather tense and formal situations, the President's answers were only about 2.7 times as long as the questions.

Can you fill in the words in this crossword puzzle? The "across" words have almost the same meaning as "question"; the "down" words have nearly the same meaning as "answer". Some letters have been filled in to help you.

ANSWERS: Across -- dispute, inquire, ask, question, doubt, investigate, wonder. Down -- explanation; answer, solution, response, rebuttal.

WHAT'S NEW IN MEDICINE

Dynagen Aids War on Cancer

Copyright 1969 World Book Science Service by Betty John

The installation at the Cleveland Clinic of a Dynagen (a neutron generator), the most powerful of its kind in the world and the first in the U.S., adds one more weapon in the stepped-up attack on cancer.

In spite of all the research and clinical help for cancer victims, no one has definitely established whether cancers are due to one's age, sex, nationality, family background, or exposure to polluted air, chemicals, or radiation.

The new neutron generator will be used to attempt to resolve some of these questions.

Fast neutrons have demonstrated their ability to destroy certain types of cancer cells better than cobalt or super-voltage X-rays, especially cells low in oxygen which resist all other types of therapy.

Like all cancer treatment, use of the fast neutrons will have to be worked out in animal experimentation so that when used on humans, healthy tissue surrounding the tumors will not be damaged.

Neutron radiography and photography are extremely new and offer tremendous possibilities in areas where X-rays are less effective.

EYE ON SCIENCE

BY JOE COSTA

Diversification in American industry often means a scaling downward in size as well as up. Typical of this are Lilliputian ferrite memory cores built by Lockheed's Electronics, Avionics and Industrial Products (A&IP) division for computer memory systems.

Ranging in diameter from 18 mills (18 one-thousandths of an inch) to 30 mills, these ferrite cores are strung on magnetic wires no thicker than a human hair. They constitute the heart of a computer -- its memory plane.

A typical memory plane, on which the assembler is working (see photo) may contain more than 65,000 cores, from two to 16 planes may go into a memory stack, and from one to 10 stacks may be used in a memory system.

The largest system presently built by Lockheed's A&IP division has a memory storage capacity of 17 million bits and a cycling time of less than 4 microseconds (4 millionths of a second).

Radioactive materials lose most of their useful life in transit and have so far been ineffective in the diagnosis and treatment of cancers. Dynagen's greatest advantage will be in producing radioactive material "on the spot."

CANCER RESEARCH -- Dr. Samuel E. Epstein of Harvard Medical School is investigating the effects of chemicals in our environment, such as drugs, pesticides, food additives and atmospheric and water pollutants to determine their genetic effect on man.

UNITED ATTACK -- Separate projects aimed at improving diet or treating infections in underdeveloped areas are not enough, according to The World Health Organization. The two must be undertaken simultaneously to be effective.

SUBSIDIARY DANGER -- For half a century, doctors have treated ringworm of the scalp with X-rays. However, the New York Medical Center's follow-up on 2,043 cases so treated has uncovered 65 neuropsychiatric cases that may have been caused by X-rays penetrating the skull.

Drag Racing Hazardous

A drag racer may have forced the accident a week ago Saturday on Rt. 7 in which a bride-to-be died and her groom was hospitalized in serious condition. Police officials have speculated the couple may have become victims by being in the way of drag racers.

Such an incident would serve to demonstrate, once again, that an auto is a lethal weapon -- as dangerous as a gun -- when it is not properly operated. It gets down to a case of really asking for it in the teenage variant called drag racing.

Drag racing can take place anywhere. It's not confined to Rt. 7. Division St. in Lockport, for instance, is notoriously used as a drag strip.

The police cannot be everywhere at once. There must be other influences to make youngsters realize the dangers involved in drag racing. There must also be some outlet in which the dangers are slashed.

Has anyone given any thought to establishing a drag strip in the area, supervising it, and letting young people get the hot-rodding bug out of their systems? Perhaps it's time the citizens of our communities began exploring this possibility.

They say driver training education in our high schools makes youngsters more reliable, but this statement could be challenged. There are youngsters who have had driver training education but probably shouldn't even be allowed behind the wheel of a car. They are too immature to realize the dangers.

An ordinary accident resulting in tragedy is bad enough but when tragedy occurs because of recklessness and irresponsibility, that's something else again.

Certainly many youngsters are sensible drivers but many more are too immature to drive rationally and to be able to make the right decision at the right time.

Some parents of teenagers will become indignant upon reading this article; no one at this time is sure the Saturday accident was caused by a teenager drag racing. If it was not a teenager, we apologize. Perhaps we will never know who it was. Only the person involved has his conscience to live with for the rest of his life.

Views On Issues

Welfare system reforms and withdrawal of United States combat forces in South Vietnam are issues drawing public attention.

There's widespread support for a phased withdrawal from the combat zone, and only one per cent of persons asked favor continuing the present welfare system, according to a poll conducted by Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill).

Replies to other questions showed strong sentiment in favor of the election of Presidents by direct popular vote, revenue sharing with the states, an end to farm subsidies and mandatory disclosure of income by all Federal officials.

Of the nearly 12,000 persons who responded to the Percy IBM questionnaire, about 75 per cent identified themselves as Republicans. In releasing the results of the poll, Percy said he would continue to seek the views of his constituents in subsequent similar questionnaires.

Here are the poll questions and answers:

VIETNAM: I favor (a) an increase in the U.S. military effort, 21 per cent; (b) a gradual withdrawal of U.S. troops, 58 per cent; (c) unilateral withdrawal of all U.S. troops, 21 per cent.

ABM: I favor (a) deployment now, 45 per cent; (b) continued research and testing but no deployment pending the results of nuclear arms talks, 45 per cent; (c) no opinion, 10 per cent.

MILITARY SPENDING: In my view, we are putting (a) too much of our resources into military spending, 50 per cent; (b) an adequate amount into military spending, 45 per cent; (c) too little into military spending, 5 per cent.

THE DRAFT: I favor (a) continuation of the present selective service system, 32 per cent; (b) a lottery system for inductions, 34 per cent; (c) an all-volunteer military, 34 per cent.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS: I favor (a) retaining the Electoral College system as it is, 15 per cent; (b) electing the President and Vice President by direct popular vote, 51 per cent; (c) revising the Electoral College voting to reflect proportional strength actually won by a candidate in each state, 34 per cent.

EDUCATION: To finance college education, I favor (a) long-term loans repayable by the students themselves, 45 per cent; (b) more Federal scholarships, 2 per cent; (c) tax credits for parents, 53 per cent.

JOBS: I would favor (a) guaranteeing every person able and willing to work a job, 56 per cent; (b) continue present welfare system, 1 per cent; (c) concentrate on improving welfare system, 43 per cent.

TAX REBATES: I favor returning a percentage of the tax money collected by the Federal government to state and local governments to use as they see fit. Yes, 71%; no, 17%; undecided, 12%.

ETHICS: Executive appointees, including Federal judges, Senators and Congressmen and candidates for these offices should be required by law to make public all sources of income. Yes, 77 per cent; no, 16 per cent; undecided, 7 per cent.

DRUGS: The use of drugs by young people constitutes a serious problem in our community. Yes, 72 per cent; no, 18 per cent; undecided, 10 per cent.

STUDENTS: Do you think reforms are needed to give students more of a say in decision-making on campus? Yes, 24 per cent; no, 70 per cent; undecided, 6 per cent.

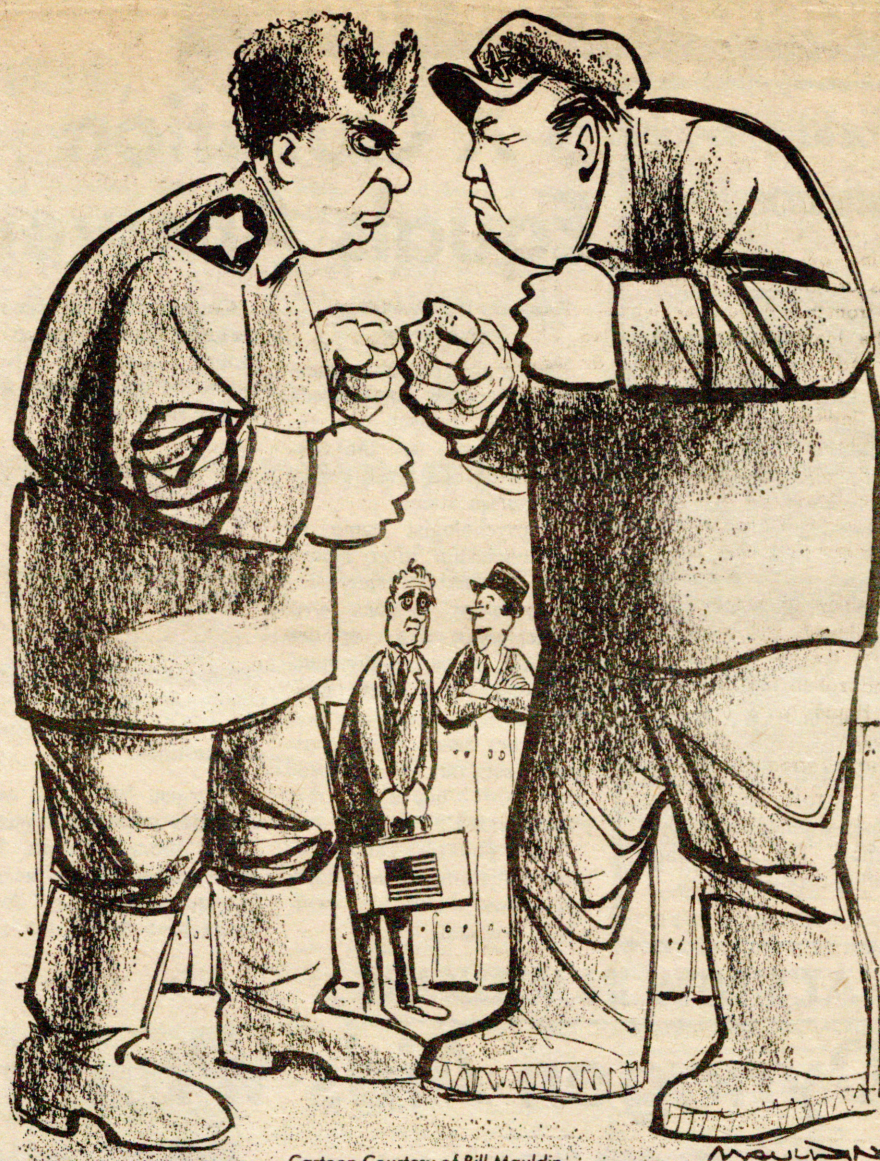

FARM SUBSIDIES: I approve of gradually eliminating the Federal subsidy and control programs for agricultural commodities. Yes, 85 per cent; no, 7 per cent; undecided, 8 per cent.

Urge Debate Attendance

Illinois residents will be handed the responsibility of choosing candidates for membership of the Constitutional Convention. The primary election to choose candidates will be held on Sept. 23.

After the four are chosen in each senatorial district, a final election to choose the two delegates from each district will be held on Nov. 18.

Residents in the Lemont area have been invited by a group of independent concerned citizens to attend a debate to be held at 8 p.m., Sept. 3 at the Lemont Methodist Church. Five of the 13 candidates filed in the Ninth Senatorial District will be given an opportunity to air their views in this debate.

Each of the candidates feels that he or she, whichever the case may be, has the best qualifications for the appointment. Only the voters of the district can decide that, and they can only do it by listening to all views given by the candidates.

In any election - local, state or national - voters must be given the facts, opinions, and views of each man or woman running for public office. Why should the Con-Con election be any different? This area of state involvement should be handled the same as any state election. It is just as important as any other. In many ways it is more important because this is the first time in Illinois this type of convention will be worked out and held.

Residents in this area are urged to attend the Con-Con debate at the Methodist Church.

Encouraging Views

Time magazine reports, "The number of students in graduate business schools has risen 65 per cent since 1964, to 75,000." These figures are a pretty good refutation of the notion that interest in business among college students is dwindling. A good share of those taking business courses apparently intend to go into business. This is indicated by Time interviews with 10 of the nation's top business students. Not only do most of them intend to go into business, but their reasons for doing so are revealing.

Observes one student of his plans to enter business, "there is just a fantastic opportunity for a person who wants to do something with himself, wants to change things, while expression of the philosophy of free enterprise than that."

Another student expresses a similar thought in a slightly different manner. He says, "It's the old question: do you want revolution, or do you want to go to work and try to develop resources and improve the world? I think people today have rejected the New Left view that the system is rotten. They want to get in the system and do something about it, to work for the ends that they think are worthwhile. It's really a new use of power and money for good."

The U.S. system of private enterprise under representative government now, as always, offers great opportunities for those with ideas, imagination and a desire to make the world a better place in which to live. The students of today who become businessmen of tomorrow may truthfully be called architects of the future.

Tells Stance

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie declared at a recent rally that Republicans are committed to "a complete program of tax reform in Illinois."

Speaking at Governor's Day at the Illinois State Fair here, Ogilvie listed these "first steps" to achieve fairness in state taxes:

Elimination of the sales tax on "food and other necessities of life, such as medicine and drugs," through the coming constitutional convention.

Signing of the bill exempting most Illinois families from payment of personal property taxes.

A constitutional amendment "to eliminate this odious (personal property) tax entirely." Voters will be asked to approve the amendment next year.

Ogilvie called the state income tax "the hard initial step" in tax reform. He continued, "As it grows with our economy and our prosperity, it will become even more important in relieving the local tax pressures on your homes and factories."

Crowded Agenda Facing Congress

(Copyright 1969, Congressional Quarterly Inc.)

WASHINGTON -- An agenda filled with issues ranging from crime control to revenue-sharing will greet Members of the 91st Congress arriving back in Washington after Labor Day from their three-week summer recess.

The legislative calendar, filled with many new Administration proposals as well as the more routine authorization and appropriations bills, indicates Congress may remain in session late into the year.

The landmark tax reform measure passed by the House just before the Aug. 13 adjournment now must win Senate approval. Opponents and supporters alike are preparing for a battle.

Scrutiny of military spending and foreign commitments will continue as the Senate considers the $1.5-billion military construction authorization bill approved by the House and the House takes up Pentagon appropriation requests.

Administration Proposals

President Nixon, between the Fourth of July and the August recesses, asked Congress to act on a number of issues, including proposals to:

- * Reform the entire system of public welfare assistance;
- * Expand the coverage of the unemployment insurance system;
- * Curb misuse of drugs and narcotics;
- * Create a Commission on Population Growth;
- * Reorganize the Interstate Commerce Commission;

A busy legislative agenda awaits Congress in its return today from recess. A session late into the year is indicated. Many new proposals by President Nixon await action. Also high on the list of pending legislation is tax reform.

- * Authorize a $10-billion, 12-year program to improve public mass transit systems;
- * Streamline manpower training programs;
- * Institute a program in which federal revenue is shared with state and local governments.
- * Establish a National Occupational Health and Safety Board to set national job safety standards.

Mr. Nixon's messages did not bring immediate legislative action. Wilbur D. Mills (D Ark.), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said that the committee would begin consideration of the welfare reform and revenue-sharing proposals in September, but action on those matters was not expected for months.

Other Business

In addition to these Administration requests Congressional action was needed on a long list of items including:

- * Authorization of the antipoverty programs under the Office of Economic Opportunity;

- * Extension of the Voting Rights Act of 1965;
- * Proposals to combat organized crime;
- * Authorization of foreign aid programs;
- * Reform of the food stamp program;
- * Safety standards for coal miners;
- * Authorization of military procurement and research;
- * Extension of farm programs;
- * Proposals to control the flow of unsolicited obscene mail;
- * Reform of the postal system;
- * Appropriations for military construction, the Departments of Defense and Transportation, the District of Columbia, foreign aid, the Legislative Branch, public works and the Atomic Energy Commission.

Two appropriations bills -- for the Treasury, Post Office and Executive Office and for the Department of Agriculture -- are in conference. The House has approved and sent to the Senate appropriations bills for the Departments of Labor and Health, Education and Welfare, Interior, and State, Justice and Commerce. Seven other appropriations measures have not yet emerged from the House Appropriations Committee.

The House has approved and sent to the Senate the tax reform bill, the military construction authorization bill, a cigarette advertising bill, a water pollution control bill, and measures to extend the Elementary and Secondary Education Act programs and the Hill-Burton hospital construction assistance programs.

Across The Editor's Desk

By ANN KARKUT

HAVE YOU ever watched a blacksmith shoe a horse? I guess the proper term today is a "horse-shoer." One of the most proficient in the field is a retired serviceman living in the Shorewood area.

RUSSELL HELD knows his business and does a good job. He has been shoeing our horses for over a year now. As long as we keep horses and as long as Russ will shoe our horses, he's our man. Prior to last year we were unable to find a horse-shoer willing to take on any more business. There is quite a demand these days for horse-shoers as more and more persons are buying horses for pleasure riding.

Since we don't have any bridle paths in this part of Will County, horses do need to be shod if ridden regularly down the gravel roads. Most of the shoulders along these roads are not wide enough to ride horses on.

Tuesday was a vacation day for me and besides Russ was to come out and check over three of the horses as the head of the house committed himself to three parades.

One must admire a horse-shoer as a scared horse could really cripple him if he weren't careful. The first two horses didn't give him too much trouble but the little gray mare was uneasy.

Apparently she must have gotten bitten by a bee as she made a sudden lunge forward, went up on her hind legs and came down with a tremendous crash. In doing so, she uprooted one of the four by four posts she was tied to. Since she had acted uneasy from the start, Russ tied a slip knot around her neck to cut off her wind if she got too active. After she found that out, she stood still so a bee bite was our theory to her acting so strangely.

It took a little while before he got the post out from under her as she was really scared by this time. But she wasn't the only one scared. I was scared too because I thought she was going to choke to death before he could calm her down. I was too scared to utter a sound.

When he got her calmed down I asked him if she could have choked to which he replied, "Don't worry, I would have cut the rope first." At least he seemed calm and collected, that's more than I can say for myself.

IN ADDITION to horseshoeing all over the Will County area, Russ and his wife operate a western shop at Rt. 52 and 59 in Shorewood.

He said they took the shop over two years ago just as a hobby little dreaming that it would grow into such a demanding business. Recently the Helds took over the whole store and expanded their business. They now have plenty of room in which to display their western clothing, saddles, boots and tack.

Say Soil Conservation Vital

The Will-South Cook Soil and Water Conservation District is stressing the need for conservation planning on all land. "It's not only farm land that erodes", says William Stelter, chairman. "Building sites and other construction areas are also ripe for erosion." In addition to good conservation and economic results, esthetic values may also be gained from cooperation in the district program.

America's district program is a major force in keeping America beautiful. Restoring and improving resources leads to a more beautiful landscape, an often unrecognized benefit of Soil and Water Conservation District work. Few things are as ugly as an eroding and gulied field or a stream choked with sediment.

Government Spends $282.6 Billion

(Copyright 1969, Congressional Quarterly, Inc.)

WASHINGTON -- Governments at all levels spent $282.6 billion in the United States in the year ending June 30, 1968, latest statistics of the Bureau of the Census show.

That is $24.8 billion more than spending in the preceding fiscal year and $58.5 billion -- or 26 per cent -- above governmental spending two years ago.

The increase for the year, however, was down from a $33.7-billion increase the previous year.

In the same period -- covering fiscal 1968 -- total government revenues amounted to $265.6 billion, up $13.1 billion from the fiscal 1967 total.

$184.5 Billion in Federal Spending

Those figures are among data compiled from three publications released since June: State Government Finances in 1968, City Government Finances in 1967-68, and Governmental Finances in 1967-68.

The Federal Government took in $165.2 billion and spent $184.5 billion. State governments received $68.5 billion and spent $66.3 billion. Local governments took in $70.2 billion and spent $72.4 billion. The figures include funds transferred from one level of government to another.

Total general revenues and expenditures -- figures which include intergovernmental transfers but exclude revenue and expenditures connected with liquor stores (operated by 17 states), utilities, and insurance trusts -- came to $133.2 billion received and $152 billion spent by the Federal Government. Revenues totaled $59.1 billion and expenditures $60.4 billion for the states. Revenue of $63.2 billion and spending of $64.4 billion were reported for all local governments.

Local Taxes Increase

Federal Government tax revenue amounted to $117.6 billion, about three-fifths of all tax revenues collected by all levels of government. State governments collected $36.4 billion in taxes and local governments collected $31.2 billion, a combined increase of 10.8 percent over the fiscal 1967 figure. The principal sources of tax revenue for the Federal Government were individual and corporate income taxes. Local governments relied primarily on property taxes, while the largest portion of state tax revenues was provided by sales and gross receipts taxes.

Government debts totaled $468.7 billion at Latest figures show governments at all levels in the United States spent $282.6 billion in fiscal 1969. That's $24.8 billion above the previous year and $58.5 billion above two years ago.

the end of fiscal 1968. This included the federal public debt of $347.6 billion, up $21.4 billion from fiscal 1967. State and local government debts hit a record high of $121.1 billion.

Education took the largest share of state and local general spending. It accounted for 40.2 per cent of the total general state expenditures and 46.9 per cent of the general expenditures by local governments.

Next largest share of state and local expenditures went for highways; the $11.3 billion spent by the states on highways represented 18.7 per cent of state general expenditures. Proportionately, however, this was a smaller amount than the 21.2 per cent of state expenditures which went for highways in 1967. Local government highway spending accounted for 4.1 per cent of their total general expenditures.

City Spending Outpaces Revenue

The cities, which accounted for about one-third of all local government spending, spent slightly more than they earned. Total general revenues for the cities came to $21.3 billion; total general expenditures were $21.6 billion. Revenues were up 10 per cent and expenditures up 12 per cent from fiscal 1967.

City-imposed taxes yielded $11.3 billion in fiscal 1968. Property taxes accounted for the largest share -- $7.8 billion -- followed by sales and gross receipts taxes of $1.8 billion. City-imposed income taxes continued to increase in importance, providing $839.2 million in revenue. Municipalities received $6 billion in intergovernmental revenue in fiscal 1968: $4.7 billion from state governments and the remainder from the Federal Government and local governments.

As with state and other local governments, the largest single expenditure by the cities went for education, even though most municipal education expenditures were by the small fraction of city governments that directly administer public schools.

The Little Troublemaker

BY JACKIE FREITAG

What is the biggest nuisance to hard-working people, both at home or at the office? The little black object that sits on the corner of the desk -- The Telephone!

A telephone, as defined by Webster, is an instrument for reproducing sounds, especially spoken words at a distance. What he fails to state in the definition is that it is a big bother when you are trying to be busy and get your work done.

It never fails that the minute you are in the middle of some deep, involved project, which requires all of your concentration, the little inanimate object sounds off its alarm. It is at that time that you would love to pull its roots out of its little itty-bitty black body.

Now really, is that very adult? For shame. The poor little telephone is nothing more than a victim of circumstances. Poor little phone, every one always blames it for ringing at the wrong time. It doesn't know that it will be disturbing you.

What is really nerve-wracking is when the phone rings, the tea kettle begins to boil, and someone knocks on the door, all at the same time. Heaven help the poor person in the middle. Why is it that the poor sweet thing never wants you until you are busy? Does it know this?

Sometimes you could swear that it does. Never does it seem to ring when you would have the time to chat and fill its head with trivial knowledge. It is at times like that you begin to think that it really is human. But we all know that it isn't, don't we?

SOUTHWEST -- Married women once took jobs because they had to. Now many work because they want to. This change, discovered in a series of interviews, has led to a dramatic new life style for mature women.

Years ago, for example, most married women remained at home. The woman who went to work, usually for family economic reasons, was less than well-educated and had to settle for low-paying factory, clerical and domestic jobs.

Today's mature woman bears little resemblance to her predecessor, the interviews disclosed. She is better educated and has a much wider choice of vocations.

Although she likes the idea of bringing her family a second income, she is "very differently motivated." She is preoccupied with "discovering her own potential and realizing herself."

The interviews concentrated on working women in the 40- to 60-year age range and included a key question: "Why did you want to take a job, after raising a family?" These were some of the responses:

A 42-year-old sportswear designer replied, "There are many personal satisfactions besides the money. You have a definite status in the business world."

A 50-year-old social worker said, "I wanted a career and two other things: time with my children and an income."

A 45 year-old woman who has just completed a course in teacher-training answered, "If you don't develop outside interests by the time your kids reach a certain age, your life can become pretty empty."

A 55-year-old law firm secretary said, "The biggest return is self-confidence. It gives my life an extra dimension."

According to the U.S. Department of Labor, the number of mature women returning to work after raising a family is on the increase. Government statistics reveal that one out of every three workers today is a woman.

This feminine back-to-work movement, experts believe, has been made possible largely through modern advances in medical science.

Women, they note, once saw themselves exclusively as housewives and mothers. By the time they had reached their forties, they considered their lives on the decline.

Now, many doctors point out, fewer women entering their forties feel that their active lives are over. Today's control of disease, knowledge of nutrition and diet, and hormone replacement therapy during menopause, they say, are combining to keep women more vital and more involved in the world around them.

Riding Bikes Good Way To Stay Trim

SOUTHWEST -- According to Bea Bagby, Will County extension adviser, the best way to women to stay trim and in shape is by bicycle riding.

There is no question about the bicycle's place in the lives of the young as well as the older persons in the country. A recent survey by the Bicycle Institute of America found that more than 55 million people in the United States ride bicycles.

"These people are sports enthusiasts who have reached a common source of happiness," states Mrs. Bagby.

But there is more to bicycle riding than enjoyment and exercise. Bicycle care and safe riding form, helps make bike riding easier and maintenance of the bicycle means best running results and longest service.

With the warm months in full swing, more people of all ages than ever before are riding bikes. A knowledge of state and local laws pertaining to bike riding and how to recognize and distinguish between traffic signs is vital for their safety. When the bicycle is properly equipped and adjusted, the safety of its operation depends on the rider. Bicycle riding is fun, but bicycle safety is a must, she points out.

Nose Too Big?

Dear Miss Brookfield:

Am I too old, at 65, to undergo plastic surgery on my nose? I have been ashamed of my large nose all my life but I doubt if my family realizes this. I cannot afford the surgery as I live on Social Security benefits. Is there any way I can obtain this operation free of charge?

S.M., Trenton, J. J.

Dear S.M.:

In answer to your concluding question: if there is, we do not know about it. As you are over 65, we checked with Medicare but they advised that cosmetic surgery -- which means surgery to improve one's appearance -- is not covered under Social Security's health insurance. We would suggest, however, that if you wish to obtain professional advice on the feasibility of the operation and its cost, you check with a plastic surgeon.

Lonely Widow

Dear Miss Brookfield:

Can you tell me where I can meet a nice, sincere man who is interested in getting married? I am an attractive widow in the late 40's and lonely.

V.L., Rocky Point, N.Y.

Dear V.L.:

That's the $64,000 question and no one has a pat answer. Other women in your shoes have found a variety of solutions: some travel (with and without results); others move to cities where there is a higher proportion of men (ditto). About the only answer we can give you is that you will not meet eligible men just by sitting and wishing. If friends cannot introduce you, perhaps you might try joining social, church or special interest groups in a larger, nearby community. We can't guarantee that you'll definitely meet an eligible man this way or even, if you do, that he will be "nice and sincere." But give it a try.

Don't Be a Tattle-Tale

Dear Miss Brookfield:

I am very upset about the husband of my dearest friend: he is having an affair with another woman. I found this out quite accidentally while visiting a friend in a nearby city. He often goes out of town on business -- at least, that's what he tells his wife. She believes him, I think. I did, but not any more. My husband said I should keep this news to myself, but I think I should tell my friend. What do you advise?

L.O., Easton, Md.

Dear L.O.:

Your husband is right. Your dearest friend might become your ex-friend, for no one likes the bearer of bad news. It is quite possible that the wife knows or suspects that her husband's trips are not completely devoted to business. You may only be confusing her silence with ignorance. If she really doesn't know and does find out -- hopefully, not through you -- avoid the mistake of saying, "I knew it all the time," if and when she confides her "problem."

Have you a problem as a mature woman, or with one? For advice and help write to Margaret Brookfield, Information Center on the Mature Woman, 3 West 57th St., New York, N.Y. 10019.

Olives, Bananas Are Featured

SOUTHWEST -- Top off a perfect sandwich roll with a glossy ripe olive. The meaty texture and nut-like flavor of the olive combines appetizingly with canned tuna and celery for a delicious salad mixture. Easily and quickly made, these sandwich rolls are great for outdoor eating.

Canned ripe olives are so simple to take on a picnic or to a barbecue. Just serve them right from the can for a snack or a relish. Since they are low in calories, everyone can enjoy them.

RIPE OLIVE SALAD ROLLS

- 3/4 cup canned pitted ripe olives
- 1 (7-ounce) can tuna
- 2 hard cooked eggs
- 3/4 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 6 hot dog buns
- Butter or margarine
- Iceberg lettuce

Cut ripe olives into large pieces. Drain tuna and flake. Peel and dice eggs. Combine ripe olives, tuna, and eggs with celery and mayonnaise. Cut rolls in half leaving one side attached and hollow slightly. Spread rolls with butter and heap with filling. Tuck a crisp lettuce leaf inside each roll. Makes 6 sandwiches.

SOUTHWEST -- An all-time American favorite, banana cream pie, is really as easy as pie to prepare.

A garnish of banana slices and whipped topping make this one as pretty as it is delicious. Corn starch in the filling gives it creamy smooth goodness.

BANANA CREAM PIE

- 1 (9-inch) baked pie shell
- 2/3 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup starch
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 1/2 cups milk
- 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 bananas

Mix sugar, corn starch and salt in double boiler top. Gradually, stir in milk. Cook over boiling water, stirring occasionally. Do not remove from boiling water.

Stir a little hot mixture into egg yolks, then stir all into remaining hot mixture over boiling water. Cook 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove small amount of filling into baked shell. Slice bananas over layer. Cover with remaining filling. Garnish with whipped topping and banana slices.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

The continuing round of baptisms, religious classes, weddings, sick calls, personal counseling, funerals, place a heavy burden on our clergymen. We often wonder how they bear it so graciously.

Although they have great inner purpose to sustain them, let us remember that clergymen are also human - they appreciate an expression of gratitude even as you and I.

Respectfully,

David Hirsch

Burning Leaves? Yes! Burning Garbage? No!

FRANKFORT -- Keep your eyes and ears open is advice frequently given police by their superior officers before starting on patrol. Frankfort police have been advised to also tune up the olfactory sense.

"Keep the old nose open, boys," could very well be the order of the night or day.

Mayor Glenn Warning reported at the board meeting last week that he had received complaints that someone was burning garbage. Burning garbage is against the laws of Frankfort, or most municipalities, it was pointed out.

The curbstone view of this law varies with the temperature. If someone burns garbage when it is 10 below zero, for instance, there are few complaints. People who keep their windows open when it is 10 below zero are probably so hardy that they could take the smell of burning garbage in full stride.

However, on hot nights folks without air conditioning keep their windows open in the hope of luring in a little coolness. The person complaining to Mayor Warning said there was little choice-- if one kept the windows closed he would probably conk out from heat prostration, if he left the windows open he would be asphyxiated by the burning garbage.

If police get a whiff of burning garbage they are to track it to its source and write a ticket.

Give $25,000 To Fund Drive

SOUTHWEST -- Joliet Wrought Washer Company pledged $25,000 to the Joliet Regional Hospital Development Association.

Joliet Wrought Washer Company, started in 1914 by the Grief family, became part of the MSL Industries Inc. in 1961. By 1969 the company doubled its sales, increased its floor space by 20 per cent and number of employees by 25 per cent.

Joseph Zoline of Los Angeles, Calif., chairman and chief executive officer, in forwarding the gift said, "MSL Industries Inc. feels Joliet Wrought Washer is a growing division that will stay and grow in the Will County area. We want our employees and their families to have the finest and most adequate hospital facilities available. To this end we have made our corporate gift in an amount that equals $96 for each of our 260 employees.

"We believe in this area and for that reason in 1968 we embarked on a $1,000,000 expansion program in plant facilities for electroplating, heat treating, phosphating and a complete and automatic waste treatment plant that meets or better all federal, state and local ordinances, laws and regulations regarding water pollution.

"We are and intend to remain good corporate citizens and to participate and assume our community responsibilities. We were asked for $25,000 and we pledged $25,000 without any hesitancy."

Banquet Players At Cow Palace

The Arbury Hills Baseball League's annual Sports Banquet will be held in St. Mary's "Cow Palace" in Mokena on Saturday evening, Sept. 13 beginning at 7 p.m.

All the boys who participated in the league this summer are invited to attend as the guests of the league, and all the parents are also invited to attend at a cost of $2 per person.

Following the dinner there will be the presentation of the trophies of merit to those boys adjudged most deserving on each team. A trophy is given for the "Most Valuable Player" and one for the "Most Improved Player" on the team.

Reservations should be made in advance with the manager of each team. If you have more than one boy who will be attending, please make sure that there is no duplication of listing for the parents. Since this is so important to the boys, please as parents, try to attend.

The Arbury Hills Cub

Scouts of Pack 10 held their Soap Box Derby on Walnut Street on Saturday, Aug. 23. Approximately 20 boys of the pack participated with their home made vehicles, and variety was the order of the day. They were of every size and shape, since the only requirement was that the vehicle must have four wheels.

The race was won in heats of two cars each, and, when all the smoke had cleared, Perry Miuccio was declared the winner over T. J. Tonra to take first place.

There were two trophies given out following the races; one for the fastest vehicle and one for the best made vehicle.

Perry Miuccio was awarded the trophy for the fastest vehicle and Greg Searles was awarded the trophy for the best made vehicle by a panel of two judges. Congratulations, to both boys, and let us hope that this can become an annual affair for our youngsters.

The First Nighters will hold their first meeting of the fall following their two month summer lay-off tomorrow evening, Thursday, Sept. 4, beginning at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Louis on Poplar Street. Hostessing the evening will be Mrs. Marvin Hufstetler of Frankfort.

If you would be interested in joining the group, please contact Mrs. Louis at 479-9229 for further information.

Those Boy Scouts of the Arbury Hills Troop Number 10 who were tapped out for membership in the Order of the Arrow at the recent summer camp, will undergo their week end of ordeal at the Boy Scout Camp at Morris on the week end of Sept. 5 through 7.

Also included in the week end are those boys who were previously inducted into the organization for their Brotherhood weekend. Those who participated in their ordeal last year will become full fledged members during this week end and then will become lifelong members.

Susan Louis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Louis of Poplar Street, celebrated her fifth birthday last week first of all with a children's party including some of her girl friends for a luncheon party followed by games and prizes.

The same weekend she was co-hosting a large family party to celebrate both her birthday and her brother Danny's seventh birthday which had taken place the previous week end.

Our sympathies are extended to the James Lee family on Willow Lane on the recent death of Mrs. Lee's father who had resided in Mokena.

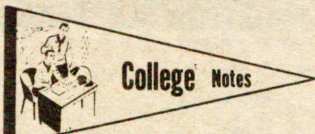

With the schools in the area now all re-opened, please use extra caution in driving throughout the district. Children so often forget their mothers' constant warnings to watch out for traffic.

PREP FOOTBALL REVIEW

Work Hard, But It's Uphill

By ED DECKER

SOUTHWEST--If spirit wins football games, the Providence High School varsity squad might be the "David" to the many "Goliaths" pitted against them this season.

Coach Matt Senffner has a cheery outlook despite the fact that his 23 varsity members are selected from a male contingent of only 250.

His charges turn to with a will in calisthenics and practice. There is seldom a quiet moment except when Coach Senffner is offering advice or "chewing" a little when repeated mistakes are not corrected to his satisfaction.

In theory the Providence team should do exceptionally well considering all but five of the squad are veterans of the 1968 campaign. At this point the theoretical value is tossed by the wayside and facts enter the picture.

A line that "might" average 165 lbs. is not something to delight the most optimistic fan. Coach Senffner feels his offense will move quite well and is depending on them to equal the obvious determination of the defense.

That most of his squad will be playing the full 48-minute game does not seem to particularly dismay the coach. He points out the fact that the players are rapidly shaping up and will be ready and willing for the opening home game Sept. 13 against A. A. Stagg H.S.

The bulwark of the forward wall is in the person of Frank Isabell, a 210 lb. center who would do justice to any line.

The secondary has an ultra lightweight at 120 lbs. in the halfback slot. Frank Ruettiger surely has to be one of the ablest of the small players in high school football.

Senior Ken Schrova will be calling the shots from the quarterback slot and probably will depend largely on the running game to move the team.

Fullback Paul Gallo at 170 lbs. may surprise the weekend fans with a desire to overcome that first year varsity squad "jitters."

Tim Ruettiger, brother of Frank, playing at halfback will be doing his best to show the pigskin prowess of the family numbering seven brothers.

Linebacker and guard Pete Bingham is the man to keep an eye on when Coach Senffner's squad moves into their offensive winged "T" formation.

All in all, the season looks rough from the outset. Most of their foes are larger schools with more talent to pick from and have been in this varsity football business a little longer. This is the second year of the varsity wars for the Providence team and they hope they can better their first year efforts.

Stagg H.S. walked away with a 44-0 win last year and the Celtics vow this will not happen again this year.

Homer LL Giants Win Title

LOCKPORT -- Homer Athletic Club Little League recently completed their 1969 season.

Giants finished in first place with an 8-2 record. For the first time since the league was formed, the first place team won the game against the All Stars.

Lockport to Host Football Tourney

LOCKPORT-- Lockport Central-East High Schools will host an invitational football tournament Sept. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Joliet memorial stadium. Participating teams are Central-East, Lockport West High, Ottawa High and Rich Central.

The tournament will consist of four shortened games with pairings assigned by a blind draw.

Two teams play the first game and the remaining two teams the second game. Lockport Central-East marching band will perform at the 15-minute halftime.

After the halftime, losers of the first two games will play the third game; winners of games one and two will play a fourth game for the championship. A trophy will be awarded the tourney winner.

Each game will consist of 16 minutes with two time outs allowed each team. A flip of the coin determines who kicks off or receives the ball.

The winner of each game will be determined by regulation scoring. If there is a tie, the team with the most yards gained from scrimmage will be the winner. If there is a tie in total yardage gained, then a flip of the coin will determine a winner.

Purpose of the tourney is to provide additional activities for the Lockport community during the fall sports season. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

SENIOR MEMBERS of the Lemont varsity cheerleading squad attended a cheerleading clinic at the University of Iowa, Aug. 17-22. The girls were kept busy from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m., learning cheers, gymnastics, and crowd control. Attending were (l to r) Laurie Lind, Mary Kay Schuda and Pat Schubert.

The ordinance adopted this Tuesday gives the village opportunity to file it in the county clerk's office before Sept. 9. The second Tuesday in September is the deadline for taxing bodies to file tax levies, it was explained by Mokena Village Attorney George E. Sangmeister. Taxes cannot be collected the following spring if the levies are not filed within the prescribed time.

Pipeline Worker Electrocuted

MOKENA -- A workman was accidentally electrocuted and another knocked down last Thursday morning (Aug. 28) when the boom of a crane used in laying a pipeline came in contact with one of the wires in the adjacent high line northeast of Mokena.

The man killed was Steve Anselmi, 58, of Bradford, Ark. The other man, who escaped serious injury, is James Taylor, 519 E. 19th St., Lockport. He was treated at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet, and released. Anselmi was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

According to information given Coroner Willard G.

Blood, Anselmi and Taylor were both holding onto a cable running down from the crane. The heavy charge of electricity hit both men. Both were knocked down. Fortunately for Taylor he was thrown clear of the cable but when Anselmi went down he fell across the cable.

Both men were employed as laborers by the Midwestern Contractors, Inc., which is laying a pipeline from the Union Oil refinery at Lemont to the Indiana line.

The accident occurred at 10:10 a.m. while the crew was working in the vicinity of 181st St. and 108th Av., in Orland Township, about three miles northeast of Mokena.

ATHLETE'S FOOT, FOOT ODOR? READ THIS --
M. Sgt. Geo. Cofer writes from South-east Asia: "I had the worst case of foot odor a person could have -- tried all the remedies I could find. Then I got T-4-L and the F.O. was gone in two days."
"I had 1/2 bottle left. I saw this Sgt. limping from a bad case of running sores on his feet -- had them for years and couldn't wear regulation black socks. I gave him the last of my T-4-L, and even helped him apply it. In 3 days his foot was better and in one week all clear. He was thrilled and now wears black socks." Open Fire House Bids Sept. 9; Plans Detailed

NEW LENOX -- Bids on construction of the new engine house for the New Lenox Fire Protection District are to be opened by the three trustees at 8 p.m. next Tuesday night, Sept. 9. The trustees will meet in the original fire house on Church St.

The new house will be built on the southwest corner of N. Cedar Rd. and Maple Lane. It will be of brick and block construction and contain some 5,000 square feet according to John E. Francis, chairman of the board of trustees. Lloyd W. Lindstrom is secretary and Amos Bruns is treasurer.

The new fire house will face east, with three bays facing - on Cedar. These bays also have doors on the west side of the building so putting equipment in position will be an easy task. About half of the building -- the south half -- will be use for a meeting room and offices. There also will be a kitchen.

According to the architects, Gerding, Wardrum and Richards, seven contractors have taken out plans and specifications so several bids are expected.

A fire house is needed on the north side of the village because of the railroad. The Rock Island Lines cut through the community in an east and west direction. Cedar Rd. is the only thoroughfare running north and south that serves both sides of the village and the properties outside the municipal limits.

There are many trains that pass thru New Lenox so that the Cedar St. Crossing is frequently blocked.

The fire department, a volunteer organization, keeps some equipment north of the tracks to cope with a blaze until more apparatus can be brought to the scene but a fire house is needed for better protection of the area.

That is why the new house is being built.

Gougar Rd. crossing over the Rock Island is closed and will remain so until the new highway is completed there. There are two other crossings over the Rock Island between Gougar and Cedar but there is no road from that section which gets through to Francis Rd.
